2018 scholarship program

essay

GSU scholarship applicants are required to submit a two-page essay as part of the application process.

Unions all share the fundamental goals of fairness, equality and justice, not just at work but in our communities. That's why unions are always at the forefront to raise awareness and advocate for solutions on important issues such as reconciliation and the #MeToo movement. Unions help to draft policy, organize bodies to carry the message, and assist ordinary unionized workers to raise awareness of the issues, attend demonstrations and work to create positive change. Ordinary people can do a lot when they work together!

Knowing this, here's your topic:

Explain what you can do to support reconciliation, the #MeToo movement or to help another person or a group targeted for his/her race, sexual orientation, gender or age.

How do you think unions can help with these efforts?
