Grain and General Services Union (ILWU • Canada)

as amended by delegates to GSU's March 2021 Biennial Policy Convention

Preamble

WHEREAS Grain and General Services Union (ILWU • Canada) (“GSU” or “the Union”) is governed by the democratic principles of open debate, majority rule, and elected representation; and,

WHEREAS GSU governs itself and conducts its business in accordance with a constitution approved by the members of the Union, said constitution being the Constitution of Grain and General Services Union (ILWU • Canada); and,

WHEREAS GSU, its Locals, the Joint Executive Council, and Policy Conventions have provided for the operation of the Union in accordance with policies and/or resolutions approved by the appropriate meetings of members and/or elected representatives; and,

WHEREAS said policies and/or resolutions have the status of bylaws;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Policies and/or resolutions of the Locals, Joint Executive Council, and Policy Conventions of GSU regarding operation of the Union and its Locals shall be continued as bylaws of the Locals and/or the Union as the case may be; and as amended herein,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a series of bylaws shall be adopted by the Policy Convention to supplement and clarify the policies, practices, and/or resolutions of GSU regarding its operation.

Carried at the 1996 Policy Convention and amended at the 1998 and 2000 Policy Conventions and as amended at the October 16, 2009, meeting of the Joint Executive Council of Grain Services Union (ILWU • Canada) and approved by members of GSU at the autumn 2009 annual meetings of the Union and amended by the delegates to GSU's 2014 and 2021 Biennial Policy Conventions.

Bylaw 2 – Membership

- 2.01 Every worker represented by the union is entitled to participation and fair representation in GSU regardless of age, ancestry, race, creed, marital status, nationality, place of origin, political affiliation, physical disability, sex, or sexual orientation.
- 2.02 Every worker represented by GSU is entitled to equitable treatment, reasonable accommodation, and fair representation in the application of the Union Constitution, the collective bargaining agreements, the Union's rules, the Union's bylaws, and the Union's policies.
- 2.03 Any person who is eligible to be a member of GSU who has applied for membership and who pays such dues, assessments, and fines as may, from time to time, be required, shall be accepted as a member in good standing of the Union. All members in good standing shall have equal rights and equal responsibilities.
- 2.04 Any member of GSU who is laid off shall continue to be a member of the Union in good standing without payment of dues with all rights and privileges that membership entails until such time as the member's seniority has expired pursuant to the terms of the relevant collective agreement or the relevant labour standards act.
- 2.05 Any member of GSU who has been terminated from his/her employment shall continue to be a member in good standing of the Union without payment of dues with all the rights and privileges that this entails provided his/her termination is the subject of a grievance or an application to a labour relations board and until such time said grievance and/or application is discontinued or it is determined that his/her termination was for just cause.

- 2.06 Any member of GSU on an authorized leave of absence from his/her employer shall continue to be a member in good standing of the Union without payment of dues for the period of the authorized leave of absence, with all rights and privileges that membership entails.
- 2.07 A person not represented for collective bargaining purposes by GSU shall be eligible for membership in the Union if his/her application is accepted by the Joint Executive Council and the conditions of membership for a person in “this category shall be as determined by the Joint Executive Council except that the person shall not be entitled to claim legal representation by GSU until or unless the Union is certified to represent him/her by a labour relations board.
- 2.08 The General Secretary shall be deemed to be a member of GSU.
- 2.09 Honourary lifetime member means a member of GSU and/or any other person so designated by the Joint Executive Council. An honorary lifetime member shall be entitled to attend all functions of the Union as a guest.
- 2.10 It shall be the responsibility of each individual member or employee in a bargaining unit represented by GSU to keep the Union head office informed of his/her current contact information including her/his mailing address, email address and phone number and to notify the Union head office of changes thereto.
- 2.11 Any revocation of membership in GSU must be in writing and delivered to the General Secretary of the Union, or his/her designate. Such revocation of membership shall not occur earlier than 90 days from the date said revocation is received by the union.

Bylaw 7 – Discipline

Members

- 7.01 Notwithstanding Bylaw 2.03 and after a hearing conducted by the Local Executive Committee or the Joint Executive Council as the case may be, a member who shall be found guilty of conduct detrimental to GSU or guilty of conduct detrimental to the advancement of the purposes of or reflecting discredit upon the Union, shall be subject to reprimand, fine, loss of good standing, removal from office, and/or expulsion from GSU.

- 7.02 Any member who is in arrears in the payment of dues and/or assessments for a period of three months shall lose his/her good standing in GSU until all such arrears are paid in full. Assessments shall include, but not be limited to, fines.
- 7.03 Failure to support legally constituted strike action shall be a specific offence for which the Local Executive Committee or Joint Executive Council, as the case may be, may assess a fine against a member and such other disciplinary action as the Executive Committee or Joint Executive Council may determine to be appropriate in accordance with the Constitution and bylaws.
- 7.04 Any member who crosses a picket line approved by GSU must resign from holding any union office immediately and shall lose her/his status as a member in good standing.
- 7.05 Any member against whom a complaint has been made, or against whom any disciplinary or adverse action has been taken shall be obliged to exhaust all remedies provided for in the Constitution and Bylaws before resorting to any other court or tribunal.
- 7.06 Any member who has been reprimanded, suspended, fined, deemed to be no longer in good standing, and/or expelled shall have the right to appeal the decision of the Executive Committee or Joint Executive Council to the next general meeting of his/her Local or to the next Policy Convention of GSU.

Rules

- 7.07 The rules governing a hearing by an Executive Committee and/or the Joint Executive Council under this bylaw shall be as follows:
  - (a) The member concerned shall be given not less than ten working days' notice in writing by registered mail of the meeting of the Local Executive Committee or Joint Executive Council at which the Executive Committee or Joint Executive Council will hear the complaint against such member.
  - (b) Such notice shall set out the complaint made against the member.
  - (c) The member shall be entitled to be assisted at the hearing by a staff member or any other member of GSU in good standing, except a member of the Executive Committee or Joint Executive Council. The member shall be entitled to be assisted by counsel at his/her own expense.
  - (d) The Executive Committee and or Joint Executive Council shall appoint a staff member or a member of GSU in good standing, except a member of the Executive Committee or Joint Executive Council, who shall present the facts of the complaint fairly and in an impartial manner. The member against whom the case is presented shall then have the right to answer the case presented and may call witnesses.

- (e) At a hearing convened under this bylaw, the Executive Committee/Joint Executive Council may receive and accept the statements of witnesses, whether or not such statements would be admissible in any court. All witnesses called shall be subject to cross-examination on any statements made.
- (f) A quorum of an Executive Committee for the conduct of a hearing under this bylaw shall be not less than two-thirds of the elected members of the committee. A quorum of the Joint Executive Council for the conduct of a hearing under this bylaw shall be not less than six members of the Council.
- (g) A two-thirds vote of the members of the Executive Committee or Joint Executive Council present at a hearing under this bylaw shall determine whether or not the member charged is guilty and shall have the authority to impose a penalty.
- (h) In respect of all matters of procedure, not specifically hereinbefore set forth, the Executive Committee and the Joint Executive Council shall determine their own procedures.

- 7.08 A member who is reprimanded shall remain a member in good standing.
- 7.09 A member who is fined shall be deemed to be a member not in good standing until such time as the amount of the fine is paid in full or the Executive Committee and/or Joint Executive Council, as the case may be, have authorized settlement of the fine.
- 7.10 A member deemed not to be in good standing shall not be eligible to participate in the business of GSU, hold office, or be a nominee for office in the union until reinstated to good standing status by the Executive Committee of the Local or the Joint Executive Council as the case may be.
- 7.11 A member who is expelled from GSU shall no longer be a member for the term and in accordance with the conditions for reinstatement determined by the Executive Committee or the Joint Executive Council, as the case may be, subject to appeal at the next general meeting of the member's Local or Sub-Local or subject to appeal to the next Policy Convention of GSU.
- 7.12 A person who has been expelled from GSU will be liable for payment of any fine or assessment previously levied against him/her.
- 7.13 The word "fine" as used herein shall be deemed to mean assessment. The direction and authorization given to the employer by each member to transmit dues and assessment, whether signed before or after the coming into force of this bylaw, shall include the authority to transmit fines assessed pursuant to Bylaw

7.01 herein. This shall apply to any person who has been fined and/or expelled from GSU.

Locals

- 7.14 In any situation in which there is reason to believe that a Local has adopted or undertaken policies or activities contrary to the objectives and policies of GSU, the Joint Executive Council shall conduct an investigation into the affairs of the Local and the Joint Executive Council may, upon a two-thirds vote:
- (a) Suspend the Local on such terms and conditions as the Council may see fit; or,
  - (b) Appoint a Trustee or Trustees to run the Local; and
  - (c) Require the Local to amend and rectify any policies or activities contrary to the principles and policies of GSU. This request will be given in writing to the Local stating the period of time allowed to rectify the situation.
- 7.15 Where the Council determines that the status of a Local is to be suspended, revoked, or a Trustee or Trustees appointed, the Local shall be entitled to a hearing before the Council within three months.
- 7.16 Any action of the Council under this bylaw may be appealed by the Local(s) affected to the next Policy Convention of GSU.
- 7.17 Locals, the members and officers thereof, who may have disputes relating to GSU affairs or against whom charges have been preferred or against whom any disciplinary or adverse action has been taken shall be obliged to exhaust all remedies provided for in these bylaws before resorting to any other court or tribunal.
- 7.18 The herein disciplinary procedures shall be administered by the Locals in their own discretion with respect to strikes, and/or lockouts involving the Local, except that a member who crosses a picket line of another Local or acts to undermine the effectiveness of a strike action of a Local shall be subject to the disciplinary procedure as administered by the Joint Executive Council on complaint from the Local in question.
